

THE BREMBO GROUP MARKS 50 YEARS IN MOTORSPORT WITH OVER 1000 WORLD TITLES

Bergamo (Italy), 16th December 2025 - Fifty years of passion, innovation and adrenaline: the Brembo Group celebrates the end of 2025 by reaching an extraordinary milestone, with over 1000 world titles won from 1975 to the present day. The integration of expertise and cutting-edge technologies was further strengthened this year by the recent acquisition of Öhlins, consolidating Brembo's leadership position in Motorsport.

Matteo Tiraboschi, Brembo Executive Chairman, said: "In the 50th year since our entry in Formula 1, we have once again demonstrated the strength of Brembo's innovation: in 2025, our technologies equipped every victory in Formula 1 and MotoGP. Being at the heart of this global success confirms the Group's role as a cornerstone of Motorsport and an authoritative Made in Italy ambassador."

A year marked by success, starting with Formula 1: an exciting season in which the Brembo Group celebrated the 2025 Constructors and Drivers' Championship with AP Racing calipers and clutches.

In MotoGP, Marc Marquez claimed his historic ninth title at the helm of the Ducati Desmosedici GP #93, equipped with Brembo braking system, Marchesini wheels, Öhlins suspensions and AP Racing clutches.

In the WorldSBK championship, Toprak Razgatlıoğlu once again led the way with the ROKiT BMW Motorrad WorldSBK Team, riding a bike fitted with a Brembo braking system and Öhlins suspensions and he is now ready to make the leap to the Premier Class. Noteworthy too are the achievements in Moto2 and Moto3: Diogo Moreira, won the Moto2 title with Brembo calipers, pads, master cylinders and Öhlins suspensions, while in Moto3, José Rueda triumphed on the Red Bull KTM Ajo, also equipped with Brembo calipers, pads and master cylinders. Both opted for the performance and reliability guaranteed by the Group. Other impressive successes were also achieved at the 24 Hours of Le Mans and the FIA WEC, where Brembo supplied all brake components, including the brake-by-wire, to the Ferrari 499Ps entered by the official Ferrari - AF Corse team and the private AF Corse team.

The strength of the Group is also evident in the major American championships, such as IMSA, which this year recognized Brembo as the Official Braking Technology Partner, with numerous drivers and teams using Group components.

Likewise, across the three main NASCAR categories, Brembo/AP Racing braking systems and Öhlins suspensions deliver trusted performance and reliability at extreme speeds on both ovals and road circuits.

The numerous successes achieved not only by Brembo but also by the Group's brands, such as Öhlins, Marchesini, AP Racing, SBS Friction and J.Juan confirm the Group's technological leadership in Motorsport.

Total dominance in Formula 1: all 24 races of 2025 were won by cars equipped with Brembo brakes or AP Racing brakes and clutches. Since 1975, the Bergamo-based company has achieved 555 victories out of 875 Grands Prix.

The absolute supremacy also continues in MotoGP, collecting new achievements: since 1976, more than 600 victories in the premier class - 500cc and MotoGP - testifying Brembo's excellence in the world of top-tier two-wheel racing.
